Mobile Phone Policy for Staff, Visitors, Volunteers and Pupils

Paper copies of this policy are available free of charge from the school office. It is also published on the school web site.

This guidance should be seen as a safeguard for members of staff, the school, visitors, volunteers and pupils and the Local Authority.

Failure to comply with the policy is likely to result in the enforcement of the Whistleblowing policy and associated procedures.

Introduction

Mobile phone technology has advanced significantly over the last few years - and it continues to evolve. Wireless connections in particular have extended the capabilities of mobile phones, enabling access to a wide range of new content and services globally. Many phones now offer Internet and email access, alongside the most often standard functions of messaging, camera, video and sound recording.

Mobile phones, alongside other forms of technology are changing the way and speed in which we communicate. They can provide security and reassurance; however, there are also associated risks. Children and young people need to understand these risks in order to help them develop appropriate strategies for keeping themselves safe.

Aim

The aim of this Policy is to support safe and appropriate practice through establishing clear and robust acceptable use guidelines.

This is achieved through balancing protection against potential misuse with the recognition that mobile phones are effective communication tools - which in turn can contribute to safeguarding practice and protection.

Scope

This policy applies to all individuals who have access to personal or work-related mobile phones on site. This includes staff, volunteers, children, young people, parents/ carers, visitors and community users. This list is not exhaustive.

Policy statement

It is recognised that it is the enhanced functions of many mobile phones that cause the most concern, and which are most susceptible to misuse. Misuse includes the taking and distribution of indecent images, exploitation and cyber bullying.

It is also recognised that mobile phones can cause an unnecessary distraction during the working day and can be intrusive when used in the company of others.

When mobiles phones are misused it can impact on an individual's dignity, privacy and right to confidentiality. Such concerns are not exclusive to children and young people; hence there is a duty to protect the needs and vulnerabilities of all.

It is appreciated that it can be very difficult to detect when such devices are present or being used, particularly in relation to enhanced functions, such as cameras. The use of all mobile phones is therefore limited, regardless of their capabilities. The aim is to avoid distraction and disruption of the working day, and to minimise the opportunities for any individual to make any covert images or misuse functions in any other way.

- know how to minimise risk.
- avoid putting themselves into compromising situations which could be misinterpreted and lead to allegations.
- understand the need for professional boundaries and clear guidance regarding acceptable use.
- be responsible for self-moderation of their own behaviours.
- be aware of the importance of reporting concerns promptly.

An agreement of trust is therefore promoted regarding the carrying and use of mobile phones within the setting environment, which is agreed to by all practitioners.

Procedures:

Personal mobiles. Guidance to avoid the use of mobile phones causing unnecessary disruptions and distractions within the workplace, and to ensure effective safeguarding practice is promoted to protect against potential misuse.

The use of a designated work mobile is promoted as:

- An effective communication aid, enabling text, email messages and calls to be made and received to keep school/families informed.
- A back-up facility should problems be experienced with the landline – or where contact needs to be made outside of work hours.
- Effective security measures are in place to safeguard against any potential misuse. Only authorised individuals have access to the work mobile, stored securely when not in use.
- Personal calls are not permitted to be made on the work mobile, other than in agreed exceptional circumstances. Contact or calls can be made via the work mobile in the event of an emergency.
- The work mobile is clearly labelled as such, and additional features such as cameras are disabled or not used.

- If any practitioner is required to drive in a working capacity, and has responsibility for the work mobile, the phone must be switched off whilst driving.
- Under no circumstances should practitioners drive whilst taking a phone call. This also applies to hands-free and wireless connections, which are considered a distraction rather than a safer alternative.

Safe storage:

- A designated safe and secure area for practitioners to store their personal mobiles during the working day is available.
- Practitioners leave their belongings in safe storage at their own risk. It is therefore recommended that phones are security marked, password protected and insured. No liability for loss and damages is accepted.
- As well as safeguarding children and avoiding any unnecessary disruptions during the day, this procedure also aims to protect staff against any unfounded allegations.

Emergency contact:

It is recognised that mobile phones provide direct contact to others, and at times provide a necessary reassurance due to their ease of access, particularly at stressful times. The SLT recognise and support that at certain times staff may have family emergencies and so will need to be contactable during the school day, at these times: -

- Staff may leave their phone (switched on) with the school office to answer on their behalf and use at other than break / dinner times.
- Alternatively, staff may leave the school office phone number as an emergency contact number.

- In all emergencies, office staff / SLT will bring staff to answer all calls.
- Staff will be invited to make/take calls in the Headteacher's office if privacy is needed.

The policy supports the Health & Safety, Whistle Blowing, Staff Code of Conduct, Anti bullying, Child Protection, Safeguarding and Online Safety policies.

This policy will be monitored and reviewed as required but at least every two years.
